

Miss Jean Neilson Becomes Bride Of R. N. Moorehead

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting this morning at 11 o'clock for the nuptial ceremony solemnized by Rev. J. M. Ewing for Miss Jean Neilson of Fresno and Robert N. Moorehead, Jr., of Bakersfield and formerly of this city. Miss Neilson, who was given in marriage by her father, J. Craig Neilson, chose a wedding costume of all deft blue lightweight wool accented with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

The dress, a one piece model, was styled with an allover pin tucked bodice and bracelet length sleeves and a boat cut neckline. The one piece skirt, with back fullness, was marked at the back with a bustle bow. Her close fitting hat was of the same pin tucked material.

After the ceremony, the couple's families and several other friends were feasted at a wedding breakfast in the bride's home on Peralta Way. The wedding cake, flanked by white candles, decorated the bridal table.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead have gone to the coast for their honeymoon. They will be home next weekend at 315 A Nineteenth Street, Bakersfield.

The bride's traveling costume was a beige spectator sports frock, worn with brown accessories and a matching fur topcoat.

Mrs. Moorehead is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig Neilson. She was educated in Glendale schools.

Moorehead's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Moorehead of Fresno. The bridegroom is a former Fresno State College student and a member of the Sigma Tau Fraternity. He is employed by the Standard Oil Company.
