Queens County ss: On this fifth day of May in the year of our Lord 1818 before me the Subscriber one of the Judges of the Court of common Pleas of the County of Queens in the State of New York, personally appears Thomas Hill aged fifty five years resident in the County of Queens and State aforesaid, who being by me first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress, entitled an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary war

That the said Thomas Hill enlisted in the month of May in the year 1777 in the town of Pomperunt in the State of Connecticut in a company commanded by Capt. Slett in a Regiment commanded by Colonel Willis in the Connecticut line

That he continued to serve in the said corps ^{in the service of the United States} until April or May in the year 1780 when he was discharged from service at Westfield or Springfield in the State of New Jersey - that he was in the battle at the capturing of Stony Point - and that he is in reduced circumstances and stands in need of assistance from his country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said service

Thos. Hill

Sworn to and declared before me this day and year aforesaid

Mrs. W. A. Mylchreest,
48 Brainerd Ave.,
Hiddletown, Conn.

Madam;

I have to advise you that from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 43678, it appears that Thomas Hill enlisted at Pomfret, Conn., May 1777 and served as a private three years in Captain Clift's company, Colonel's Kelly's and Meigs' Conn. regiment. He was wounded in the battle of Stony Point, no details of said injury, on record.

He was allowed pension on his application executed May 5, 1818, while a resident of Genesee Co., N. Y., aged 56 years.

In 1823, soldier was living in Riga, Monroe Co., N. Y. and stated that his wife, Mary, was 59 years old.

There is no further family data on file.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.
